MARTIAL LAW RULES CUBA; DISTURBANCE

PRESIDENT MACHADO SEEKS TO PUT DOWN TROUBLES
WHICH THREATEN REGIME

DOCTORS ARE ANGRY

Declare They Will Not Answer
Sick Calls Nor Issue
Prescriptions

HAVANA, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Virtual martial law ruled Cuba today as President Machado sought to put down disturbances which threaten the life of his regime.

Reports that he had ordered his resignation to the senate court were denied by the president, and an American embassy spokesman said that two doctors he sent here from Guantanamo to protect American interests.

After a day reports with island-wide disturbances which police curbed only by firing tear gas and to and about the crowds, the president asked himself of power recently granted to congress and suspended constitutional guarantees for 60 days.

The suspension is similar to that effected in Havana and environs for a 20-day period, just ended, when student disturbances here threatened the government. It allows imprisonment without trial, suspends free speech and invokes other summary measures.

Meanwhile 200 physicians, voicing protest at conditions, voted to "boycott" if the government makes good its threat to imprison professors of the national university who support the leaders of recent disturbances. The doctors said they would neither answer sick calls nor issue prescriptions.

Six students were injured in clashes in Havana yesterday prior to the president's action. No disorders were reported after the suspension.

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Cancellation of the previously announced policy of the American government to remain aloof from internal Cuban affairs was announced today by Secretary Stimson.

Questioned on events in the island republic, the secretary said Ambassador Gutzmer had merely reported on the government's action in suspending constitutional guarantees.

His reports were said not to concern any question of the resignation of President Machado.

The secretary scoffed at reports Ambassador Gutzmer had attended a meeting of the cabinet in Havana, saying this would be contrary to American policy.

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A marriage license was issued Dan Pratt, 26, and Doris Sherwood, 19, Kankakee today in Chicago according to Associated Press reports.

A bill to foreclose on a note for $4,500 signed by Alex Rivard, and dated April 30, 1929, was filed in circuit court today by Fred Snow, receiver of the American Trust and Savings bank.

Another suit to collect on a note for $181 was filed by W. Leiser against Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cloonen Jr. A praecipe for the $2,000 suit brought by Thomas and James Grant against Melvin Love was filed by Attorney C. B. Sawyer.

A suit to collect a judgment of $2,821, obtained in Cook county on Jan. 26, 1923, was filed by Hurja, Chase and Hooker of Chicago against Joseph H. Dodson. The judgment was transferred to this firm on July 14, 1928 by William H. Rankin. It was reported that the sheriff of this county could not find any property upon which to levy for the judgment, and the plaintiffs believe that Dodson has since acquired property which can be levied upon.

A poultry shoot will be held at the Will Vickery farm two and one-half miles east of Alma Park on Sunday, Dec. 14, starting at 1:30 o'clock. The prizes will be ducks and geese.

HOME BUREAU UNITS IN BUSY MEETINGS ALL OVER COUNTY

Wednesday, December 10th, Miss Dora Pearce, county home adviser, met with the Home Bureau unit for an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. William Burkhardt. A buffet luncheon was served at noon after which Miss Pearce gave a candy demonstration and talked on principles of candy making.

During the business session it was also voted to have nutrition and health for the major topic next year with four months of music, four of parliamentary law and four of etiquette as a minor.

After the business session, Miss Pearce gave a talk on the history of Christmas carols and the group sang one verse of each as it was spoken of Mrs. Henry Davis accompanied at the piano.

The main part was had with the grab bag when everyone received a gift for the pulling of a string.

Miss Dora Pearce, home adviser and Miss Hilda Nelson, secretary to the Home Bureau, attended an entertainment put on by the Union Hill unit Thursday evening.

The program consisted of a group of pianists, kitchen hand, duets and vaudeville acts. They played before a crowded house.

Mrs. Carl R. Smith, county vice chairman of the Home Bureau and Miss Dora Pearce, home adviser, went to Grant Park Thursday for a guest day program of the Home Bureau at the home of Mrs. Earl Bartlett. Mrs. Smith spoke on membership and Miss Pearce gave a candy demonstration and talked on origin of food customs and Christmas carols.

During the business session, the nominating committee reported that they would like to retain their present officers.

The recreation period was led by Mrs. Earl Bartlett who had every member make out a piece of paper the gift they would like to receive for Christmas then the group guessed the name of the object. Some required several guesses.

"Years Make No Difference If The Spirit Is Young" Wrote
Stenographer To Army Officer

Kansas City, Kas., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Miss Grace Brandon, star witness for the government in the trial of Major Charles A. Shepard for the alleged poison murder of his wife, today underwent a long and painful operation to remove a tumor from the base of her skull.

She testified she kept the number of gifts from Shepard because she knew he would not have given her anything that was not appropriate under the circumstances.

The young stenographer then told of receiving a letter from Shepard the day his wife died. Part of the letter quoted Shepard as saying: "I want to tell you Mr. Shepard passed peacefully away. I suppose it is best as she suffered so much. But my conscience is clear as I did everything I could to save her."

Asked if Shepard had not always conducted himself as a gentleman the girl replied:

"Yes, he was a perfect gentleman. Referring to her relations with Shepard while he was stationed for several months at San Antonio prior to his wife's death, Class asked if the Major ever had attempted coarseness.

"No," was the answer. She said she first met Shepard in November, 1928, when he came to live at the boarding house where she worked.

There were our army officers living there, she testified.

"Were you a only woman there at the time?"

"Yes, besides the landlady, Mrs. Wylie."

About a week after becoming acquainted with Shepard, she testified, she accepted his invitation to go to dinner and a show.

Asked if she had mentioned his "troubles" with his wife, she answered in the affirmative.

"He didn't discuss it fully," she replied.

"After his return to Fort Riley, she testified, related to his wife's "wild parties and bills she had run up while he was away."

BYRON IS CHARGED WITH OWNERSHIP OF 3 SLOT MACHINES

A formal complaint charging Oscar "Foxy" Byron with ownership and operation of three slot machines seized by Sheriff Goodknight in a raid at Foxy's Inn, Bourbonnais, last Saturday evening was filed in county court today by States Attorney T. R. Johnston.

Byron, in a statement to The Republican after the raid, issued a denial that he had any interest in the dance hall which he formerly owned in Bourbonnais. The authorities, however, are convinced that he is the owner of the three machines which were found in the raid.

Jesse B. Thompson, who operates a restaurant on South Washington avenue in this city, was also arrested the same night as the raid at Foxy's Inn. A slot machine was confiscated by the sheriff at Thompson's place and he is charged with its operation.

MURDER FARM REVEALED IN NORTH DAKOTA

SOLUTION OF MYSTERIOUS
FAMILY OF SIX

BODIES RECOVERED From Grave Dug In Floor Of Farm Barn Near Watford; Investigation On

Watford City, N. D., Dec. 12.—(AP)—The recovery of four bodies, three of them from a grave dug in a floor of a farm barn, today led county authorities to say they were close to a solution of the mysterious disappearance of a family of six near Schafer last February.

The arrest of Charles Bannion, on charges of embezzlement, led to the recovery of the bodies of A. E. Haven, 50, who had lived on the farm; his sons, Daniel, 19, and Leland, 16, and an infant three months old. Mrs. Haven and a three year old child still were missing. Bones of the latter child were also believed found, but identification was not certain. The victims apparently had been beaten to death with a hammer. The motive has not been learned.

Accused of selling four hogs which did not belong to him, Bannion was hauled into court. The matter of the whereabouts of the Haven family came up during the hearing. Bannion insisted they had gone to Colton, Ore., to live and he had taken them to a train to begin their journey.

After the hearing Bannion called his mother, a minister and his attorney and asked Sheriff C. A. Jacobson to take him to the farm in a pile of refuse there, he told the sheriff, the body of the baby would be found. It was.

Authorities said Bannion asserted that the child was killed by Mrs. Haven, who, he said, was mentally unbalanced. Haven, he is reported to have said, pledged him to secrecy, and buried the body.

After the first body was found, the sheriff took Bannion to Williams. Questioned there, he told the authorities followed Bannion's direction, dug in a trench in the barn where they found three bodies and what may be parts of another.

Bannion is also reported to have told authorities that Mrs. Haven had killed her husband and three of the children with a hammer and that Bannion aided in burying them. Mrs. Haven, the officers were told, then fled with the other child.

It was also pointed out that both the state laws and city ordinances require that every motor vehicle shall be equipped with two lights in front, and one at the rear, and that all three shall be in working order. The special policemen will be instructed to watch for motorists violating this rule and offenders will be punished.

Motorists are advised to make themselves familiar with the state and city traffic rules, the location of through streets and highways, and to observe the laws. Ignorance of the law will not be accepted as an excuse.

CITY PLANS TO OPEN WAR ON SPEEDERS

DRIVERS' FAILURE TO STOP
FOR THROUGH STREETS TO BE PUNISHED

100 SPECIAL COPS

Mayor Beckman, With Sanction
Of City Council, Will Appoint
Special Secret Police

With the sanction of the city council which will be asked at the next regular meeting of that body, Louis E. Beckman, mayor of Kankakee, will appoint one hundred special secret police officers to make a determined war against motorists who violate the state and local traffic laws in this city. The motorist who fails to stop for through streets and the speeder especially will be punished.

Aroused by the great number of automobile accidents which occur as the city extends its growth and activity, some of which have terminated with fatalities, the city of Kankakee is determined that its citizens must obey the traffic laws. Failure to do so will be punished drastically.

Traffic Meeting Held
This determination was made at a recent meeting of city authorities. Those present were: Louis E. Beckman, mayor of Kankakee; the city council traffic committee consisting of the following aldermen: John Savage, George Cooley, Ed Buresh, Clarence Speicher, and Leo Ostrowski. Bert L. Fitzgerald, police magistrate; Victor N. Cardoel, city attorney; and John Stack, chief of police.

A survey was made regarding the large number of accidents between automobiles on the city streets and the result of this survey showed that most accidents were caused either by motorists failing to stop at through streets or by speeding.

Various steps that might be taken to remedy this condition were discussed and the conclusion was finally reached that the most effective method was through the appointment of one hundred special police officers who will watch for traffic violations, report such violations to the proper officials, and warrants will be issued for the arrest and trial of these violators.

Offenders Booked
It was also emphasized at this recommendation that all violators should be booked at police headquarters and that the names and addresses of all offenders and the nature of their offenses should be kept in a public record at the city hall. The newspapers will be asked to cooperate by publishing the news of arrests and convictions of traffic violators.

The special officers will not be expected to make actual arrests, although they will have the power to do so if necessary. They will be regularly sworn in, under bond, and will have all of the powers of regular police officers. The only reason that they will probably not make actual arrests, except when necessary, is that if they make arrests their identity might become public. These officers will be distributed all over the city and will be instructed to report every violation.

Full Stop Required
It was pointed out today by Victor N. Cardoel, city attorney, that city ordinance requires that motorists shall come to a full stop before entering upon a through street and that the state law requires all motorists shall come to a full stop before entering upon a state highway. These laws, in the future, will be drastically enforced if the present plans of the city authorities are carried out.

Attorney Cardoel pointed out that the motorist who fails to come to a full stop before entering a through street or a state highway not only is endangering his own life, but which is more important, is endangering the lives of innocent people who have the right to assume that he will stop.

It was also pointed out that both the state laws and city ordinances require that every motor vehicle shall be equipped with two lights in front, and one at the rear, and that all three shall be in working order. The special policemen will be instructed to watch for motorists violating this rule and offenders will be punished.

Motorists are advised to make themselves familiar with the state and city traffic rules, the location of through streets and highways, and to observe the laws. Ignorance of the law will not be accepted as an excuse.

ASSOCIATION TO RENEW FIGHT ON KANKAKEE RIVER

William Hagstrom of Wilmington, chairman of committee on natural resources of the Kankakee River Development Association, has written to Louis E. Beckman of Kankakee, president of the association, asking that the organization renew its fight to prevent the Kankakee river from being declared an unnavigable stream.

The protest, according to Mr. Hagstrom, is to guard against the possible application to the Kankakee river of a recent ruling by United States Attorney General Mitchell that New River, near Radford, Virginia, a stream considered navigable for 150 years, was unnavigable.

Mr. Hagstrom writes: "As the Kankakee river, recently declared a navigable stream by the War Department, in connection with the Illinois Deep Waterway, presents the fast and only medium making possible the resumption of mining operations on a large scale in this vast coal field of northern Illinois, we make this protest to guard against the possible of the New River ruling by Attorney Mitchell."

Mr. Hagstrom has also written to Congressman Frank Reid of Chicago, asking him to continue his favorable efforts in this matter.

Not In Street
The school patrolman, distinguished by a white star, Brown belt, does not enter the street to direct traffic. Rather he holds back the line of children waiting to cross the street, until there is a break in the traffic. Then he directs the children across, taking a position three paces from the curb where he can jump back to safety if necessary. Only when children are actually crossing the street does he raise his hand to stop a coming car. If the car fails to stop, he takes the license number and reports the matter to the proper authorities. Then a warrant is issued for the arrest of this individual.

The cooperation of the public in this matter is asked by the Chicago Motor club. The organization wishes to emphasize that the boys do not direct traffic and that they will not take a license number of a car unless it is necessary. The boy is at the curb only for the purpose of assuming his rights as a pedestrian upon a cross walk, and for the purpose of directing the other children in their rights on this cross walk.

STATE HIGHWAY DEPT. PREPARES TO FIGHT SNOWS

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Ninety-six hundred tons of material will be kept on hand by the Illinois highway department today to fight the snows.

Manpower and machinery have been mobilized and more than 50 miles of snow fence have been erected where the worst drifts are likely to occur. The highways will be kept open to traffic throughout the winter if it is humane possible, the department promised.

There are more than 7,000 miles of state and local roads and more than 1,000 miles of state air roads to keep open.

Along the immense system of highways the snow equipment has been distributed at strategic points. The equipment, standing in readiness for the first two inch snow fall of the season, is formidable. There are 254 heavy trucks, 213 one and a half ton trucks, 36 caterpillar tractors, 188 V-type snow plows, 208 straight blade plows, 9 small tractor plows, 5 small harrows, 8 wing plows, 1 large special motorized plow.

For the offensive against snow blockades the state has been divided into nine districts, corresponding to the road conditions. The snow engineer is in charge of the snow removal activities. The roads in these districts have been divided in turn into sections varying from twenty to thirty miles in length.

One heavy truck with a snow plow attached has been assigned to each of these subdivisions of the districts. Arrangements also have been made for supplemental equipment in districts where it probably will be required.

In the northern part of the state where the snowfall is heavier, more of the trucks have been equipped with V-type and straight blade plows. In many of these northern subdivisions there are two heavy trucks so that one may serve as a pusher in cutting through deep drifts. The lighter equipment, generally speaking, has been assigned to the southern part of the state.

When an exceptionally heavy snowfall of general extent occurs, as happened twice during the winter of 1929-30, it becomes necessary for the highway department to repair private plows and tractors. Arrangements for such emergency action this winter also have been perfected.

Keeping this large amount of snow equipment in perfect condition, so that the highways may be opened to traffic with all possible speed, requires a highly perfected organization behind the lines.

There must be an abundance of equipment and man power in reserve. Working in such cold weather, many times the machine men are freezing around zero, the equipment quite often fails. Parts for repairs must be available immediately.

So too, does the manpower suffer under the hardships that attend the sterile task of keeping nearly ten thousand miles of road open. Men must be kept in reserve to replace those whose tour of duty has kept them out in the cold for hours.

Also, when an especially heavy snowfall occurs, it is quite often necessary to remove stubborn blockades by the hand shoveled method. Furthermore, these snow-shovelers, as well as the regular employees must be provided with warm food and transportation.

DOODY'S LAWYER AGAIN REBUKED

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 12.—(AP)—William B. S. East, Chicago lawyer who appealed to the Supreme Court on behalf of William Doody, Chicago gangster, to sentence of death was administered a second rebuke by the Supreme Court this morning.

It was denied permission to file an amended petition on Doody's behalf.

First petition asked the court to set aside the sentence of death because the state had failed to prove its case. The court, however, granted Doody a rehearing on his own motion. Thereupon Stewart apologized and asked permission to try again, which the court today refused.

WITHDRAW OBJECTIONS TO THE THOMPSON PLAN

Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—The postoffice department today withdrew objections to the plan of Mayor Thompson of Chicago for distribution of valuable prizes.

Carl J. Appel and Samuel I. Olan, representatives of the Chicago mayor, presented the plan at the department. Horace Pennington, postoffice solicitor, promised to notify Arthur C. Leuder, Chicago postmaster, that matter on the contest could be admitted to the mail.

Appel and Olan went from the postoffice department to the radio commission to meet other objections to the mayor's plan.

Academy of Medicine
In the United States inflammation of the appendix or appendicitis has become one of the most common surgical conditions of the abdomen.

Appendicitis has been recognized and surgically treated only since the nineteenth century. The operation for disease of the appendix as such was performed in 1816. The surgical treatment of appendicitis did not become common until 30 years later.

Between the ages of 1875 and 1883 there is a record of but 36 appendicitis operations. In 1928, however, there were in the United States 18,000 deaths from appendicitis. The condition is drawn by the mortality thereof appears to be distinctly on the increase.

The appendix, called vermiform because of the fingered appearance, is a large worm-like structure that is a part of the large intestine. It is attached to the cecum at the beginning of the large colon and is located on the right side of the abdomen. The average length of the vermiform appendix is about 3 to 4 inches.

There is a good deal of controversy as to what the function of the appendix might be. It is said that it is a vestigial organ—that is, an organ which in former periods of the human existence may have served some useful end, but now is merely a remnant.

On the other hand, certain scientists believe the appendix to be a useful structure, secreting a substance which helps to aid the movement of waste material along the colon.

Talks To Parents

Tired Mothers.
BY ALICE J. HEDDER.

Among the influences that bear upon childhood none is more potent than the mother. The child grows up with whom the child spends the most of his time. Mother's disposition is the child's environment. What mother does for her child, she does for her child's future.

The woman who has to do all of her own housework, cook and wash and then for her family frequently reveals in her martyrdom to household drudgery. She never has time to rest, she never goes out. She is chronically nervous, tired and cross.

The housewife who never gets away from her work is always tired. She is a professional martyr, or she is a person who has no rest, no relaxation, no recreation. Her duties on an efficient basis.

A mother owes it to her children to manage her household in such a way that she has time to enjoy herself, doing just what she likes to do a few hours each day and time to play with her children in a really happy, carefree mood.

Mother's influence is the most powerful of all influences that bear upon the child. The mother—the mother who is tired and who has no rest, no relaxation, no recreation—her influence is the most powerful of all influences that bear upon the child.

R. J. CAPONE AND CO-DEFENDANTS ARE INDICTED

Chicago, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Ralph J. Capone, eldest of the Capone brothers, and 17 co-defendants were indicted by the federal grand jury today on a charge of conspiring to violate the national prohibition act in operation of the Cotton Club in the Montmartre club in Chicago, a suburb.

The indictments were returned before Federal Judge James H. Walker. Most of those named as Capone were managers, waiters or other employees of the Cotton club.

The government charges that Capone actively managed and had a principal financial interest in the two places, which were closed under federal court injunctions several months ago. The Cotton club has since reopened.

More than 400 sales of intoxicating liquor were cited in the indictments and 24 overt acts were set forth. One of them was an alleged telephone conversation between Capone at the Cotton club and an associate at the Montmartre club last April, when the act of admitting certain persons to the Cotton club was discussed.

SHANAHAN LOOMS AS SPEAKER OF THE NEXT HOUSE

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Re-election of David E. Shanahan as speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives is the prediction of all Republican house members thus far heard from. From all parts of the state they are turning their attention toward Springfield, the organization of the legislature, starting at noon Wednesday, January 7.

There are no other Republican candidates in sight. It is even known here that Mr. Shanahan wants the place, but his election is threatened in spite of himself. There has been some talk of possibility of election of a Democratic speaker by a combine of Democrats and a handful of Republicans, but that is highly improbable, inasmuch as it would be an empty victory, entailing no hard work and worry, without the usual rewards for partisan organization.

Michael Free, Chicago Democratic leader, last session has been mentioned but it is reported that he is not the place under existing circumstances.

George C. Blauvelt of Carlinville is the only candidate thus far for clerk of the house, to succeed himself. Homer J. Tice, another veteran.

DISCORD BETWEEN HOOVER AND SENATE AGAIN THREATENING

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON
Washington, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Disagreement between President Hoover and the senate threatens to flare again today, reports reaching the capital that President Hoover contemplated another statement against the foes of his relief program.

The senate, in passing the emergency $118,000,000 public improvements appropriation yesterday, was concerned in avoiding an extra session that in spending hours in debate.

However, the senate Republicans are determined to pursue Mr. Hoover's request for conference legislation within limits of the treasury and are gathering their forces to insure that.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED IN CANTON, CHINA

Canton, China, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Martial law was declared in Canton today as the result of a disturbance in the northern part of Kwangtung province and as a precaution against possible trouble elsewhere.

Troops patrolled theaters and restaurants as well as the streets and other public places. The disturbance was the third anniversary of the communist uprising here in which thousands were slain in street fighting and a large portion of the city burned.

The reds finally failed to gain control of the city.

Telegraph lines to Shuchow, Kwangtung, which had been menaced by communists, were down today and little was known here of the developments. A Hankow dispatch said government forces had killed the red advance toward that city.

Dispatches from Hukow, Hainan Island, off southern Kwangtung, said widespread disorders were occurring in the northern part of the island. At the request of Hukow authorities the Kwangtung government ordered three gunboats bearing marines to the island city.

HEARING CASE OF CHAMPAIGN DOCTOR; CHICAGO

Chicago, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Efforts to prove that Clio Hinton, 34 years old, Champaign, Ill., stenographer, who died March 31 after an alleged illegal operation performed by Dr. E. E. Eade of Champaign, was too irrational before death to make dependable statements were made in defense counsel today at a hearing before the State Department at Registration and Education.

Dr. Eade testified that he had been called to the case by Lavonne Hinton, Clio's sister, and that his examination disclosed the girl was suffering from septicaemia following an operation, which, he said, was not necessary to save the girl's life. He declared he ordered the girl removed from the room connected with Dr. Eade's office to the Mercy hospital where she made the statements that her country resulted from an illegal operation performed by Dr. Eade.

Dr. Eade contends Miss Hinton died of influenza and pneumonia which developed because she was exposed to the cold, winter weather through which she was moved from his office to the hospital. He was acquitted by a Champaign jury when tried for the murder of Miss Hinton.

Repeating to questions of Herrick, Dr. Eade insisted the girl, while irrational before and after the time of her death, was sane at the time of her death.

Christie testified, as witness for the defense, that she had been called to the case by Lavonne Hinton, Clio's sister, and that his examination disclosed the girl was suffering from septicaemia following an operation, which, he said, was not necessary to save the girl's life. He declared he ordered the girl removed from the room connected with Dr. Eade's office to the Mercy hospital where she made the statements that her country resulted from an illegal operation performed by Dr. Eade.

HEARING CASE OF CHAMPAIGN DOCTOR; CHICAGO

Chicago, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Efforts to prove that Clio Hinton, 34 years old, Champaign, Ill., stenographer, who died March 31 after an alleged illegal operation performed by Dr. E. E. Eade of Champaign, was too irrational before death to make dependable statements were made in defense counsel today at a hearing before the State Department at Registration and Education.

Dr. Eade testified that he had been called to the case by Lavonne Hinton, Clio's sister, and that his examination disclosed the girl was suffering from septicaemia following an operation, which, he said, was not necessary to save the girl's life. NON-RESIDENT PATIENTS SENT TO OWN STATE

Springfield, Ill. Dec. 12.—(AP)—Removal of non-resident mentally ill patients from Illinois state hospitals to institutions in their own states is being accelerated in Illinois, which they are legal residents will result, in ten years, in a saving of $1,000,000 to state funds, figures of the state department of public welfare reveal.

This computation is based on the average annual cost of caring for mental cases—$300, for 10 years, the estimated average time the patients spend in Illinois state hospitals, multiplied by the number removed during the year—400.

Mrs. Mary L. Shive, assistant director of public welfare, and S. D. McKenny, the department agent, have been active in working out the inter-state changes so that each state shall care for its own cases.

Of the 401 sent out of Illinois, the state was required to defray transportation costs of only 119. The average cost of moving the patients was $130—less than half the average amount expended annually for their care.

In relation to the non-resident patient interchange service of Illinois, Mrs. Shive states that the department of public welfare, accepts the duty of providing proper care for the mentally afflicted citizens of Illinois and exerts its best efforts to the end that other states and foreign countries likewise care for their own.

Through reciprocal agreements between Illinois and three other states, New York, Massachusetts and California, and negotiations with others, the 401 removed from Illinois are now receiving the attention of Illinois and exerts its best efforts to the end that other states and foreign countries likewise care for their own.

Of the 401 removals effected during the year, the greatest number—110—were sent from Chicago State Hospital, 88 from Kankakee and 59 from Joliet. The others were transferred from the state hospitals at Peoria, Alton, Anna, Dixon, East Moline, Jacksonville, Lincoln and Peoria.

GETTING POWER OUT OF SUNSHINE

By HOWARD HAKES (Associated Press Editor)

New York, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Dr. Robert A. Millikan, the physicist, said today the science already known enough to outline a method of getting power out of sunshine.

He predicted this will be done when coal and oil sources are exhausted, and this science before the introduction of life insurance premiums.

He said one other possible common source of energy exists in hydrogen from sea water, but with no known way of using it.

"For the past century," he said, "men have been using the sun's energy bottled in coal and oil in bygone ages, and this reserve will be gone in a few centuries, but what then? The answer is here, and it is not a hypothesis.

"It is this—there is enough energy sent us each day, from the sun for all our needs, those present now and those reasonable in the future.

"Further we now know enough already to be able to outline the main methods by which to go to work to utilize this inflow of sunshine. It cannot be done without brains. That alone makes it worth doing. But it is only an economic matter that prevents us from utilizing sunshine directly now. We are not likely to utilize it appreciably so long as coal and oil and gas are so abundant and accessible as now."

GANGLAND GUNS ROAR ONCE MORE IN CHICAGO; DEAD

Chicago, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A fusillade of shots and the roar of an automobile engine signalled the apparent resumption early today of gangland warfare, quiescent for a month or more.

Two well-dressed young men were the victims. Both had been shot to death. Police said they were identified as Rudolph Marino, 24, and John Thomas, 21, alias George Mayo, adding that Mayo had police records in Buffalo, N. Y., and Rochester, Ind.

A lonely highway in the Evergreen Park district was the scene of the assassination. Mrs. Martha Van Warden of Crown Point, Ind., a guest in the home of Joseph Kimp, a truck farmer, heard the shots and the roar of the motor of an automobile. A few minutes later Theodore Wierman, a resident of Evergreen Park, on route home in his car found the bodies lying beside the road.

About the same time the Chicago detective bureau received a telephone call saying two men had been slain. Neither the Evergreen Park nor the county highway police had been called, leading the detectives to believe that the message had been dispatched by the killers themselves.

The last reported slaying was that of Joe Alois, northside gang chief, who walked into a machine gun room and died.

Police began working on a new theory when it was discovered that both of the men had been charged with extortion, the case against them being dropped last June 23. It was considered possible that they were members of an extortion gang.

A serious cold became acute last Saturday and Lewis had to cancel several speaking engagements, including the Ordway Club's annual banquet in Washington. President Hoover and Lewis were to have been the only speakers.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A dance in a courtroom corridor was the way William Kuhn expressed his satisfaction with the postponement of his trial, or at least of the charges of attempting to extort $25,000 from Miss Marian Wright, secretary of Judge John H. Lyle, too late to be tried on the charge.

F. L. PENNINGTON BUYS PHILCO SET FOR CHARITY FUND

The Philco baby grand radio set, priced at $68, being given by the I. C. Pharmacy, Philco dealers, to the Salvation Army radio fund, was purchased today by F. L. Pennington, manager of the Buehler Brothers meat market.

Mr. Pennington's check was made out direct to the Salvation Army fund and mailed to Philadelphia today. He is on sponsoring a contest and giving the set away to his customers.

Every Philco dealer in the nation is selling one of these sets and donating the sale price to the Salvation Army radio fund. The total amount of $110,000 will be realized in this manner alone. The Philco company is spending nearly half a million dollars this week in this drive to aid needy families of the unemployed and is sponsoring the broadcast of the Army-Navy game in New York on Saturday. Every listener-in on Saturday is urged to send a dollar to the fund for the privilege of listening to the game broadcast over the National and Columbia channels and announced by Graham McNamee, Ted Husing and Bill Munday.

Tickets for the broadcast are being distributed by the I. C. Pharmacy. Checks or money orders should be mailed out only to the Salvation Army radio fund and mailed in care of Philco, Philadelphia, Penn.

A picture of the local Philco agents presenting Mr. Pennington with his new radio will appear in the Republican Saturday.

Play Highly Pleases Public

The play "An Arizona Cowboy", given last Friday evening, Dec. 5th, proved very pleasing to the audience. Each character took his or her part so well it could not be said which was the best.

The leads—Miss Nellie Pomrenke, as the pretty ranch owner, and Paul Koors as the cowboy sheriff were decided hits, supplying the heart interest of the play. The juvenile leads—Evelyn Perden as Young 'un from the poorhouse and LeRoy Hummel as the partner of the sheriff, were delightful in their roles, supplementing the love interest. Beatrice Hall and Abel Hanson as Petunia and Hezekiah Briggs, gave such a realistic presentation that all of the married folks felt "right at home". Bessie Jack, in the part of Fawn Afraid, the Indian girl, was excellent, giving a spirited characterization. Donald Peterson, as Big Elk, the Indian chief, played his dignified role to perfection. Errol Gifford as the chink, was great, and kept everybody wondering what he'd do next.

And of course there's always a crook. This time there were three of them. Goldie Barham was captivating as the temptress from Frisco. Harold Barham and Arnold Piery, as partners in crime "put it over" in such a way that it made you want to go home and lock and bolt your doors. Last, but not least comes Jupiter, a real little gray speckled hen who behaved and acted her part as well as any member of the cast.

An orchestra of four young people of Cullom, directed by Mrs. C. H. Robinson, delighted the audience with their selections before the play and between acts.

Other specialties were—a reading by Mrs. W. H. Essington which was very fine, receiving hearty applause and calling for an encore; the Harmony Duo, John Gerth and Errol Gifford pleased the audience with several songs, Ernest Reising accompanying them on the piano.

The weather was not the kind that calls people out for pleasure and the crowd was not so large as the sponsors of the play had hoped for, but those who did come out were highly appreciative and insisted that the play was well worth repeating. If it is put on again there will be several additional specialties and the public can be assured of an evening of clean, wholesome enjoyment well worth the price and the effort put forth to come out and patronize this play.

Mr. and Mrs. William Theis of Lafayette, Ind., spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Theis and his sisters, Mrs. D. M. Baer and Miss Anna Theis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sadler and two little daughters Shirley Ann and Joanne left Monday morning for their home in Chicago after a two week's visit with relatives here. They were accompanied to Chicago by Mrs. Sadler's father, Mr. Chris Haverer. They stopped in Joliet to see their daughter and sister, Mrs. Frank Mettelle in St. Joseph's hospital.

The Catholic ladies' card party held last Wednesday evening, was very interesting as all have proven to be. Mrs. Joseph Duffy and Mr. William Sadler (country) were high score euchre players and Mary Margaret Koerner and Donald Naas won high honors at buncos.
